TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface	11:
Acknowledgments	7.
Introduction	.1
Training
Goals/Objectives
Overview Chart for Street Law for School Resource Officers
Organization of the Manual
Law-Related Education (LRE)	.9
LRE and Positive Youth Development
Why Teach LRE in Schools?
Best Practices in LRE
Support for LRE
Integrating Street Law for School Resource Officers into School Settings	15
Gaining Support From Key People
Introduction to Street Law for School Resource Officers
Preparing to Teach the Lessons
Special Considerations	25
Sensitive Topics
Controversial Issues
Timesaving Tips
Resources	29
National Organizations
Street Law Resources
Lesson One: SROs: Do You Have What It Takes?	35
Learn about community policing and the role and challenges of being a
School Resource Officer
Lesson Two: Introduction to Criminal Law: Should It Be a Crime?	17
Learn the basics about crime and evaluate the criteria used to designate certain actions of a crime
Lesson Three: A Law: Understanding What It Really Means	51
Analyze the intent of a law applicable to schools and look at differences in interpretations

Lesson Four: Community Problems: Finding Solutions Together
Lesson Five: Vandalism: It's More than Just Property Damage
Lesson Six: Bullying: Just Joking, Right?
Lesson Seven: Alcohol and Violence: What Risks Are You Willing to Take?
Lesson Eight: Date Rape: Why No Always Means No
Lesson Nine: Is It Child Abuse or Neglect?
Lesson Ten: Victims of Crime
Lesson Eleven: Crime Scene: Are You a Good Witness?
Lesson Twelve: Reporting a Crime: Would You?
Lesson Thirteen: Police Arrest: What Happens and Why?
Lesson Fourteen: Racial Profiling: How Should the Law Respond?
Lesson Fifteen: The Fourth Amendment: What Are the Rules for Schools?	